Sermon Discussion

A Surprise Rebuke
Revelation 2:12-17

1. Are you surprised that Jesus would rebuke the persecuted church? Does that seem harsh when people are dying for their faith?
2. The church is at risk of being judged because it has tolerated false teaching in order to avoid problems with the culture around them. What are ways in which churches might compromise today? How do these compromises reflect the broader biblical warnings against idolatry and false prophets (cf. Numbers 25:1-3, 31:16; Col 3:5)? In our modern context, what forms do cultural idolatry and false teachings take, and how can we discern and confront them?
3. When does a specific doctrine go from being something Christians can disagree over to something that would lead Christ to threaten the church if they do not deal with it?
4. The false teaching being “allowed” has to do with idolatry and sexual immorality. In the next letter, Jesus refers to this as the “deep things of Satan.” How do these issues parallel the warnings against spiritual adultery elsewhere in Revelation (cf. Rev 17-18)? How can we identify and resist similar temptations to compromise in our current cultural context?
5. What does it mean that God threatens to fight against His own people (verse 16)? How does this relate to the mercy of God? Read Isaiah 49:2 and Hebrews 4:12. What does this suggest about the nature of Christ’s judgment and the importance of repentance?
6. There are two beasts in Revelation 13. One kills the saints. The other deceives the saints/nations. Which one is harder to deal with? Why is it so hard for a Christian to realize that they have been deceived?
